

Patrick Palardy

Live Audio Engineer Owner of Public Lunch Studios

2023 AMNA Adjudicator

Patrick Palardy is a veteran of the Calgary music scene and has worked with thousands of bands ranging from Slayer to Neko Case as a live audio engineer.

He is the owner of Public Lunch Studios - a full service recording studio - where he has produced and recorded artists such as Carter Felker, The Shiverettes, Natural Twenty, I am the Mountain, and more.

As a touring engineer, Pat has toured and mixed bands such as Rueben and the Dark and Michael Bernard Fitzgerald.

Pat enjoys audio consulting to make people and places sound perfect. He lives in Calgary with his wife and two children.

